WARD WELFARE COMMITTEES

145. (1) A local council shall protect the welfare and promote the rights of children within its area of authority and shall ensure that within the district, governmental agencies liaise with each other in matters concerning children.

(2) subject to this part, the local council by its appropriate social services department, shall investigate cases of contravention of child rights within the district that are reported to it or come to its notice.

146. (1) If the local council has reasonable grounds to support child abuse or a need for care and protection of a child, it shall direct a probation officer or protection officer accompanied by the police to enter and search the premises where the child is kept to investigate

(2) The local council shall direct the probation officer or protection officer to refer the matter to the Ministry, if the child is not in immediate need of care and protection.

(3) If after investigation, it is determined that the child has been abused or is in need of immediate care and protection, the local council shall direct a probation officer or protection officer accompanied by the police to remove the child to a place of safety for a period of not more than 7 days.

(4) Before the expiry of the seven-day period referred to in subsection (3), the child shall be brought before a Family Court by the probation officer or protection officer for an order to be made.

(5) Until the Family Court determines the order, the Family Court may commit the child to an approved residential home or to the care of a probation officer, protection officer or other suitable person

147. (1) Subject to this Act, the Minister may, by statutory instrument, make such regulations as he may consider necessary for giving effect to this Act.

(2) Notwithstanding the generality of subsection (1), the Minister may make regulations relating to the regulation of -

- (a) conduct of proceedings and discharge of functions by Social Services Department;
- (b) publication of records and matters related to a child;

(c) procedure, consistent with the rules of natural justice, for the conduct of investigations or inquiries into child rights violation, including-

- (i) the filing of complaints by victims, legal representatives or families of victims, state or non-state or any other party or member of the public;
- (ii) the admissibility of complaints;
- (iii) the proof of facts;
- (iv) the examination of witnesses;
- (v) representation by legal practitioners; and
- (vi) other related matters;

(d) the payment of compensation and the rendering of financial assistance, including legal aid, to children who are victims of violations.

148. The Child Rights Act, 2007 (Act No. 7 of 2007) is hereby repealed.

Repeal and savings.
